Trip Cancellation Policy

If you wish to cancel a trip, you must notify us in writing immediately. For all trips, except for Arctic and Antarctica expeditions cruises, the following cancellation penalties will apply:

Cancellation 70 days or more prior to departure date, initial deposit will be charged as a processing fee.

Cancellation 45 to 69 days 50% of total tour price will be charged or we will afford you the chance to change the dates to another planned trip with Idlewild Adventures at a later date. However your initial deposit will be charged for processing fees.

Cancellation within 45 days 100% of tour price is not refundable because all hotel, transportation and other fees are already liable.

In the event that Idlewild Adventures has to cancel a trip for any reason, another tour will be offered. If the alternative tour is not accepted, we will refund all the monies paid by you to us minus 2.9% if you paid with a credit card using Pay Pal. However, you will not be entitled to make any further claim for any injury, loss, expenses or damages or for any loss of time or inconvenience, which may result from such cancellation. Idlewild Adventures cannot assume responsibility or any additional costs or fees relating to the issuance and/or cancellation of air tickets or other travel arrangements. Refunds will not be made for any missed trip tours, transportation, accommodations or services.

Advertised Prices

Prices in all brochures, electronic or otherwise, are based on the current rates of exchange and tariffs as of November 2007 and valid for the period November 2007 – December 2008. In the event of a significant change in foreign exchange rates and/or tariff rates, we reserve the right to increase the quoted price up to the day of departure up to 7% of the total cost of the trip. In the event of a price increase greater than 7%, the traveler shall be notified and has the option of a full refund. If, after departure, additional expenses are incurred through delay, accident or disruption of advertised schedules beyond our control, such expense must be borne by the traveler.

Itinerary Changes

Idlewild Adventures reserves the right to change the date of departure or the conclusion of the trip for any reason, or to make changes to the itinerary whenever we deem it necessary for the comfort, convenience or safety of the trip participants, and to cancel a trip at any time. Should we have to curtail a trip after the time of departure, we will not be liable for any form of refund whatsoever, although everything will be done to complete the trip or to utilize alternative arrangements.

Customized Itineraries

Any Idlewild Adventures trip or program that is not listed on this web site is subject to all terms and conditions as listed on this page.

Standards Abroad

Please note that there may be different living standards and conditions with respect to the provision of utilities, services and accommodation outside of North America.

Health Considerations

To enjoy a trip to the fullest possible extent, you should be in good physical and mental condition. On advancement of a deposit, you certify that you do not have any physical condition or disability that would create a hazard to yourself or to other travelers. It is the sole responsibility of the traveler to check if any vaccination or other medical precautions are required. We reserve the right to decline accepting or retaining any traveler whose health or actions may impede the operation of a trip or the welfare or enjoyment of fellow trip members.

Insurance

We strongly recommend that you obtain comprehensive travel insurance, including trip cancellation insurance, and medical insurance, including air evacuation insurance. On some trips, evacuation insurance is mandatory.

Passports and Other Documents

It is the sole responsibility of the traveler to be in possession of a valid passport, visas, permits and certificates as may be required for the trip. Your passport must be valid for at least six months after you return back home. Entry to another country may be refused even if your travel documents are complete.
